"The Egyptian Gazette" Series is the most artistic collection in the world in Egypt.

TO OUR VISITORS.

The Egyptian Gazette has much pleasure in presenting to its subscribers the accompanying compilation of some of the many interesting routes by which they may travel homeward...

This depends partly upon the month in which you leave Egypt, for Cairo in January may be a little warmer than the Riviera...

They are as follows:— The line now routes— from Port Said or Alexandria to Plymouth, Southampton, London or Liverpool—occupies about 11 days.

The steamer of the P. & O. North German Lloyd, Orient and Messageries Maritimes are the largest. The Ansonia, British India, Blyth and Hindostan Lines are also mentioned...

The quickest homeward Continental routes are the P. & O. Direct Express (Port Said, Suez) and the Austrian Lloyd Triestino (Suez, Brindisi) from Alexandria.

mail from the great fair arrival from Bombay. These small but comfortable ships have occasionally good sized saloons and attain a very high rate of speed.
